one of the great twentieth century works of theology emil brunner s dogmatics series presents a profoundly biblical systematic theology finding a path between barth and bultmann brunner explores key doctrines such as the doctrine of god creation and redemption and the doctrine of the church and of faith these foundational texts from a leading theologian of the 20th century are crucial for scholars and students illuminating how modern protestant theology was formed in the last century the first volume serves as an introduction to brunner s view of dogmatics setting out the nature position and necessity of dogmatics before exploring the many facets of the doctrine of god in detailed vigorous explanation brunner considers the nature and will of god including his name his holiness his wisdom and his glory thorough insightful and extensive this first volume is an illuminating beginning to this series the second volume explores the fundamental concepts of the protestant doctrine from creation and the creator to man s position within creation sin and its consequences and the saving work of jesus brunner explores all of the possibilities of these fundamentals and his detailed thoughtful arguments are designed as he says to set us free to have a faith which is based on nothing save the love of god revealed in jesus christ the third and final volume focusses on the theology of the church as a reflection of god s self revelation through the holy spirit and an eternal consummation of divine self communication drawing together the understanding gleaned in the previous two volumes brunner addresses the nature of the church and faith to bring his systematic biblical theology into the experiences of his readers we agree with dr torrey that there is great need for clear and popular preaching of christian doctrine this need was met by dr torrey in the case of his own church and will now be met in that of many readers to whom these sermons shall come in printed form there are fifteen sermons and the subjects treated are the inspiration of the bible the christian conception of god the deity and person of christ the personality and deity of the holy spirit the atonement justification the new birth sanctification the resurrection of the body the devil future punishment these great doctrines are expounded clearly simply and in a thoroughly evangelic spirit and tone we would close this notice by emphasizing again the great need today for just such preaching as dr torrey has given in these sermons and by commending them to all who feel the need of instruction in the fundamental doctrines of christianity the princeton theological review the author is a congregational minister and his point of view is about the point of view that would have been taken by jonathan edwards the greatest of all congregational theologians he is strongly conservative and strongly calvinistic he believes in verbal inspiration and in literal hell fire his arguments are taken entirely from the bible to him the bible is final authority on all questions the reader will find this book a vast storehouse of proof texts logically and systematically arranged these sermons drew large audiences the author avoids all technical and scholastic terms and speaks in the language of the bible and of the people the layman who wishes to know what the bible teaches on these fundamental doctrines will find this a helpful book the union seminary review for young christians as well as many older ones this will be most helpful it is a much felt need today that there should be more thorough instruction on the essentials of the christian faith and mr torrey s exceptional ability as a bible student makes him a most helpful teacher on this subject record of christian work instruction in the fundamental truths of christianity first delivered as sermons publishers weekly the sermons fifteen in number cover the principal subjects of christian doctrine in an attractive clear and earnest way and are calculated to help many to a deeper and more serious reckoning with their christian profession we have profited by contact with his earnest christian mind the living church contents i inspiration or to what extent is the bible inspired of god ii the christian conception of god or the god of the bible as distinguished from the god of christian science and the god of modern philosophy iii the christian conception of god the infinite perfection and unity of god iv the deity of jesus christ v jesus christ a real man vi the personality of the holy spirit vii the deity of the holy spirit and the distinction between the father son and holy spirit viii the atonement god s doctrine of the atonement vs unitarian and christian science doctrines of the atonement ix the distinctive doctrine of protestantism justification by faith x the new birth xi sanctification xii the resurrection of the body of jesus and of our bodies xiii the devil xiv is there a literal hell xv is future punishment everlasting the doctrine of god is the foundation of christian theology and the prerequisite of all true faith this translation provides in the words of hendriksen a spiritual treat for the serious reader deification was not only a pagan concept but a metaphor for a deeply christian view of the purpose of human life this title brings together much recent research on the church fathers from the second to the seventh centuries offering an analysis of their spiritual teaching and setting it within the context of the times thomas f torrance offers a detailed study of the most profound article of the christian faith the holy trinity torrance adopts a holistic approach when examining the interrelatedness of the three persons father son and the holy spirit and their dynamic communion with the being and nature of god combining immense academic range with his characteristically fresh theological perspective torrance builds a significant theological bridge between ancient and modern as well as between the roman and protestant theology he engages deeply with the church fathers and discusses the ontological nature of god here torrance conveys a simple message the doctrine of the trinity is the doctrine of god from back cover
